The rebel ex-Gen'l Roger A. Pryor was captured on Sunday in front of the 2d corps. An officer on picket duty noticing a man prowling in front on the picket line, drew a paper from his pocket and waved it to the rebel, as a sign to come forward and "exchange," not for a moment suspecting who the individual was.

Pryor seeing the officer waving the paper, boldly advanced towards our lines, when the Union officer discovered that he was a rebel of rank, and instead of offering the paper for exchange, drew a pistol and presented it to Roger's head, at the same time requesting him to surrender, which he did without resistance, but was evidently a little crestfallen at being "taken in and done for" by a Yankee. Pryor now belongs to the 7th Virginia cavalry, having been reduced to the ranks, it will be remembered, by court martial for disobedience of orders. At the time of his capture he was attached to General Lee's headquarters as Lee's chief scout. Pryor was brought up on the James Brady and was turned over to Col. Ingraham, to be disposed of. He is but little changed in outward appearances, although his features are darker, from exposure, but those who were accustemed to see him on the Avenue in this city and in the Hall of Representatives, would easily have recognized him from his long flowing black hair, sharp black eye, and bold and defiant look. He was dressed in a new suit of Confederate

gray cloth, and wore a shawl or blanket, which he drew tightly around him, and in which he sought to hide his face as he stepped from the boat to the wharf, although, after reaching the street and before entering the carriage which conveyed him to the Provost Marshal's office, he looked anxiously around, apparently as if to see whether he could recognize any of his old friends in the crowd that were pushing ward to get a glimpse at him

His hair almost reached his shoulders, and apon his head he wore a stiff rim black hat. He had on a pair of cavalry boots which came up to his knees, into the legs of which he had On the way up from City Point to this city

Pryor was provided with a state room on the boat, and no one was allowed to enter and converse with him, as a sentinel was placed at the door, which the General kept closed, evidently being anxious to avoid the gaze of the passen-After the boat reached the 6th street wharf, he remained quietly seated in his room smoking a cigar, but when the officer who had charge of h m tapped at his door and told him to prepare to leave the boat, he stepped out into the state-room with a long stride, remarking, in a theatrical style, as he did so, " Show the way! I am ready!" As soon as he was seated in the carriage he

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

Heavy Cannonading-The Capture of Pryor The rebel ex-General Roger A. Pryor, now a private soldier in the Confederate army, was captured Friday last by the Fifth Corps pickets of the army of the Potomac, while attempting to exchange papers with our pickets, as a retaliatory act for the recent capture of Capt. Burbridge by the rebel pickets under similar

He says that General Lee had issued an order for the return of Captain Burbridge on Saturday, and he will probably be returned as soon as Burbridge is sent back. Since his capture Captain Burbridge has been dismissed the service for disobeying the order forbidding the exchange of papers or holding intercourse with the enemy under any pretext whatever.

The information from the Army of the Potomac, dated Sunday evening, is, that the usual amount of picket firing was heard along the front, but beyond that all was quiet. In General Butler's department the picket firing was heavier than usual on that day, and there was also considerable cannonading.

The Late Fire at Newbern

Correspondence of N. Y. Tribune. NEWBERN, N. C., Nov. 20.—At about 11 o'cl'k Saturday night, Nov. 19th, a fire occurred in this city, which resulted in a fearful destruc tion of property, and the loss of several lives It originated in an old saloon on the corner of Broad and Middle streets, and just opposite that portion of the city burned down in 1862. Fifteen large buildings, mostly stores and vorable, at one time it was feared the entire place would be destroyed. The conflagration was finally arrested by blowing up several buildings before they had been reached by the flames. In this perform ance, several soldiers who were engaged in removing stores from one of the buildings were

FINANCIAL.—The New York Evening Post

The advance of Saturday night in the gold market is maintained to-day at from 226 to 227% per cent. The quotation about noon was

Government gold-bearing stocks are also firmly supported, and the prices going up on the 1881's and 5-20's. The latter sold as high as 107% per cent. for either old or new issue. Money is easy to the brokers at seven per cent.; and in exceptional cases, as on government stocks, six per cent. is taken by lenders. With the exception of governments, the Stock Exchange this forenoon was dull and quiet, though generally steady in prices as compared with Saturday. At 1 o'clock the gold room had ad vanced to 229a230 per cent, on the news of the falling back of Gen. Thomas.

The movements in the price of gold continue to attract the public attention. On the 1st October the price was 189, to which point it had gradually sunk from 285, the quotation on the 11th July, soon after the passage of the gold bill. During the month of October it gradually rose, and on the 1st November it sold at 241 %. One week later it rose to 260, from which point it has gradually fallen to 216%, the lowest quotation of Friday. The cause of these mischievous and unexampled spasms are to be sought in the inflated, redundant state of the currency, in the instability and derangement of commercial values, in the resulting disturbance of public confidence, and in the stimulus imparted to wild speculation in the precious metals. The operation of these efficient and powerful causes of fluctuation in the price of gold has been considerably exaggerated by the recent gratifying military news, by the growing decrepitude of the rebel cause, by the brightening prospects of an early peace, and by the belief prevalent among unreflecting and uninformed persons that immediately on the cessation of active hostilities a returnnot gradual, but spasmodic, not healthy and normal, but violent and ruinous-will at once be made to specie payments.

Dry Goods Auction .- The week opens with but one sale, and even this is something extraordinary, as Monday is considered more for preparation than for sales. Messrs. Haggerty & Co. had an unusually large exhibition of cloths, cassimeres, &c., comprising nearly nine hundred lots. The attendance was more than usually large, but the bidding very unequal. Velvet vestings sold heavily, and at much lower prices, say at a depreciation of 10 per cent. Drab moleskins, which sold last week at $1.05, were to-day disposed of at 70c. Italian black cloths ranged from 68c a82c., all the lots selling quite liberally.

The heavier and finer qualities did a little better, 7-4 English velvet coatings was quoted at SSc.a$1 05; blue Devous, $2.62\(\frac{1}{2}\); 6-4 French Chinchilla cloakings, $2.50; 6-4 Chinchilla $2.50; 6-4 Moscow beavers, $3.85; Scotch plaid cassimeres, $3.50a $3.55; black Tricots, $2.50, &c. Many lots were passed, prices not meeting the views of the holders.

OFFICIAL.

The Department of State.

[CORRESPONDENCE.] WASHINGTON, D. C., November 26, 1864. Hon. W. H. Seward, Secretary of State, &c., &c.: How. Sin. I beg to inform you that I have been deputed to convey to this country an address from the people of Great Britain and Ireland to the people of the United States of America. The address was presented to Gov. Seymour for him to present through the proper channel. I was requested by him to convey it to the President of the United States, as the authorized chankel of communication between the people of other nations and the people of the United States of America. May I, therefore, ask the honor of an opportunity for so doing? I am, honorable sir, yours, most obediently, JOSEPH PARKER.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, November 26, 1864. To Joseph Parker, Esq., Washington, D. C .: SIR: Your letter of this date, stating that you are the bearer of an address from the people of Great Britain and Ireland to the people of the United States, has been received. Before answering the question which your letter contains, it is desirable to be further informed whether you have authority from the Government of Great Britain and Ireland for the purpose referred to, and whether your mission has been made known to the diplomatic agent of that Government accredited to the Government of the United States.

I am, sir, your very obedient servant, WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

METROPOLITAN HOTEL, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov., 26, 1864 Hon. W. H. Seward, Secretary of State, &c., &c.: Hon. Sin: In reply to your letter of to-day, permit me to state that the address which I have had the honor of being deputed by the parties signing it to bring to this country, and containing the signatures of some three hundred and fifty thousand of my countrymen -from the peer to the artisan-is not from the Government of Great Britain nor from any political party It is simply an expression of the earnest desire of the masses of the people of Great Britain to see peace again restored to this

Waiting your favor, I am, Hon, sir, Yours, most obediently, JOSEPH PARKER.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, November 26, 1864. To Joseph Parker, Esq., Metropolitan Hotel: SIR: The Government of the United States cannot receive the address which was mentioned in your notes of this morning. Your request for an interview with the President to present the address is therefore declined. I am, sir, your obedient servant, WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

COLLISION OF THE CREW OF THE GUNBOAT YANKEE WITH CONFEDERATE CAVALRY AND HOME GUARDS The Enemy Attempt to Cut Off the Men of the Yankee-Captain Shultze Captured. The Currituck, Acting Ensign Felix, arrived this morning from the lower river, for repairs, she having been in active service now for eighteen months, in the Rappahannock and She reports that on Wednesday or Thursday last a party of about 40 officers and men from the Yankee, under the command of Acting Master G. C. Shultze, went on shore on a raid, a short distance this side of Port Lowry, on the Rappahannock river, and while Captain S. and party were near a house, a force of about 100 rebel cavalry and a number of home guards were discovered attempting to cut off their way to the boat. The crew, seeing that they had superior numbers to contend with if they attempted to make a stand, beat a hasty retreat to the beach, and Shultze and the cabin boy had their retreat cut off and were captured. Subsequently the commander of the cavalry sent a flag of truce to the Yankee for change of clothing for Shuitze, and also a message that if more raids are made by the officers and men of the gunboats, Captain S. will be summarily got off safely to the Yankee. But Captain

Captain Shultze is a good officer, and his many friends here will regret his capture, and hope for his speedy exchange. He has been for several months in command of the Jacob Bell, from which he was recently transferred to the Yankee. The Currituck has seen some hard service on the Rappahanneck; in the torpedo expedition she played a prominent part, and from the fact that she has been so long and actively employed without the necessity of any repair-ing, speaks well for the boat. The following are the present officers: Acttng Ensign, A. Felix, Commanding; Acting Ensign, E. Peterson, Ex-Officer; Paymaster's Clerk, F. Clark; 2d Assistant Ensign, A. Clum; 3d Assistant Engineers, W. J. Phillips, and W. B. Allen; Pilot, Samuel Denike.

SHERMAN.

Nothing whatever has reached this city today in regard to Sherman. The Richmond papers of Saturday, the latest received here, as we stated yesterday, are mum on the subject, except so far as admitting indirectly that they have given up the hope of intercepting him before he reaches the seacoast, but propose by silence to keep us ignorant as to the point he reaches on the coast, so that supplies may not be sent to meet him there.

GENERAL HANCOCK'S HEADQUARTERS. General Hancock, who is to have command of the First Corps, which is to be raised and organized in obedience to General Orders No 287, issued from the War Department, will, in a !few days, establish his headquarters in the large three-story brown front house, No. 158 F street, between 19th and 20th, and next door to Government warehouse No. 1. The house is now undergoing repairs, which will be completed within a day or two. From Hudson Taylor, 331 Penn. avenue, we have a copy of the excellent December number of the Atlantic Monthly.

There is no foundation for the rumor of the evacuation of Johnsville, except a proper precaufion for possible contingencies. The military situation is satisfactory to the authorities.

The impression gains ground that Hood will move east across the Chattanooga, and possibly with the hope of accomplishing something by co-operating with Breckinridge.

MEETING OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC Association —A meeting of the National Democratic Association was held last night at German Hall, on 11th street, with thirty mem. bers in attendance, including ex-Senator James Green, of Missouri, and Hon. T. B. Florence. The Chair (Mr. Florence) stated that the last meeting was the initiation of a movement to continue and perfect the organization of the Democratic conservative masses—an organiza. tion numbering 118,000 men, looking to conservative and constitutional management of the general government. He conceived that the signs of the times were cheering for the conservatives, as radical abolitionism would shortly be stabbed in its own house. This was an incentive for them to work, and the conservative press of the country were a unit in insisting that this great organization should be sustained. Mr. F. A. Aiken had no doubt that the purpose of the association was to discuss the principles of future action. During the week he had considered the matter seriously, but could not come to any conclusion what action to ake in relation to the incoming Administration. It was the duty of the Democrats at the national capital to present their views to the country, and the others would fall in with them. In view of the next meeting he offered the following resolution:

Resolved by the National Democratic Association. That a committee of five be appointed by the chair to propose and set forth in a series of resolutions the basis of the future action of the association, and to devise ways and means to meet the financial requirements of the asso. ciation, and that said committee be requested to report at the next meeting. Mr. S. Brereton moved that the finance committee of the old association be appointed in accordance with that resolution. Mr. W. Minnix wanted to know if this was the old association or a new one. Mr. Brereton answered that this was the old association until gentlemen came forward and attached their names to a new constitution. Mr. Minnix was of the opinion when the campaign closed the old association ceased, and that when this meeting was called it was for the purpose of forming a new association. The Chair decided that the old association remained intact.

Dr. T. G. Clayton apologized for being late, but there was a woman in the case. [Laughter] He had to attend to his duties—[laughter]—police duties. [Renewed laughter.] He was under the impression that the old association still exists with Tom Florence, Bill Gary, and Dr. Clayton. [Laughter.] He was opposed, however, to a series of resolutions setting forth what they should do as the meetings themselves would be suggestive of action. Some further discussion ensued, when Mr Aiken modified his resolution by striking out

"and to devise ways and means to meet the financial requirements of the old association, as it was stated by Mr. Brereton, that the old association did not owe anything, but Mr. Aiken contented that the old association owed about $1,500 for documents sent off to friends. Mr. Aiken's resolution, as modified adopted, when Mr. J. E. Miller offered the following, which was also adopted : Resolved further, That the said committee of five do examine all bills or accounts rgainst tions as it was not the place for them. He wanted his friend Seward to fix the Florida matter. [Laughter.] Dr. Charles Allen could not see the propriety said National Democratic Association, and that when they make their report they report the amount of outstanding debts against said Mr. F. A. Aiken offered a series of resolutions ernment in giving up the steamer Florida to Brazil. Capt. Pat McGuire objected to the resolu-

of the resolutions. Congress had passed similar resolutions in relation to Mason and Slidell, but Seward gave them up.

Objections was here made to the receipt of the resolutions, when Mr. Aiken withdrew them for the purpose of making an amend-ment, but again offered them as a whole after remarking that he did not believe the resolution would influence the Government in its action. His object was to see if the spirit of the Association was bold enough after its late defeat to reaffirm one of its principles that this Government's integrity shall be maintained at home and abroad.

Motions to lay on the table, adjourn, &c., were made, but did not prevail. Finally it was decided to allow each member five minutes to speak upon the resolution.

Dr. Clayton did not hold Mr. Lincoln respontible for the seizure of the Florida. He hoped the association would pass no such resolution reflecting upon the Administration. If the Administration repaired the Florida and turned her over to the Brazilian Government, it would be one of the most noble acts that it had done for the past two years, and it was the duty of the Administration to surrender the Florida. Mr. S. P. Moses endorsed the remarks of Mr. Clayton, and would applaud this action of the Government in returning the Florida, as it would be an act to be applauded. The further consideration of the resolution was postponed until the next meeting, and the association adjourned.

EPISCOPAL.-On Sunday last, Bishop South gate confirmed, in St. John's Church, George town, in the morning, eighteen persons, two of whom were from St. Alban's Church. St. John's is the venerable church, being the oldest Episcopal, and perhaps the very oldest church now standing in Georgetown. In the afternoon, the number confirmed in the Mission Chapel was thirty; and at night, in Christ Church, the number was, as already stated in our paper, Grace Church, (Island,) Rev. Alfred Holoccasion of the confirmation ceremonies there.

The opening services and elequent invocations of the Protestant Episcopal Church, ever impressive, were strikingly so on this occasion, and the fine performances of the choir in singing the 70th Psalm, and the 90th (confirmation) hymn elicited the admiration of all present. Bishop Southgate's discourse was from the oth, last verse of the first chapter of St. Luke: "And the child grew and waxed strong in pirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing into Israel." His sermon was one of those original, appropriate, and practical essays which never fail to affect every honest At the close of the discourse twelve candilates for confirmation presented themselves at the altar, and in the peculiarly impressive service of the church consecrated themselves to the Most High. The class consisted of fifteen, but three of the candidates were anavoidably detained. To-night, Bishop Southgate administers the rite of confirmation at the church of the Ascension, Rev. Dr. Pinckney, rector.

MARRIAGE.—There was an interesting wedding ceremony at the Methodist Protestant Church, 9th street, at half past 1 o'clock this afternoon, the church being crowded on the occasion. The happy couple were Mr. Warren Choate (whose handsome face is usually to be seen at Philp & Solomon's Book Store,) and Miss Kate Missouri Ragan. The bridesmaid (both bride and bridesmaid being dressed in tasteful traveling costume, was Miss Maggie Flenner, and the groomsman was Mr. James B. Wimer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Nadal, of Wesley Chapel, who showed his good taste by claiming (according to the good eld custom) the first kiss from the charming bride. The couple were kept busy for some time in receiving the congratulations of their host of friends and then left to take the 3 P. M. train for their bridal trip northward.

MEETING OF CIGAR MAKERS .- A large number of the manufacturers and dealers in cigars assembled at Emrich's European Hotel, corner of Eleventh street and Pennsylvania avenue, last night, for the purpose of electing delegates to the convention to be held at Cooper Institute, city of New York, on Wednesday, December 7th, at 10 o'clock. The meeting was organized by the election of James Powers president, and James M.

Towers secretary. A circular was received from the presidents of the various cigar manufacturers associations of New York, and in accordance therewith the following gentlemen were nominated and unanimously elected delegates to the convention:—Francis Finley, D. E. Irving, F. Sellhausen, J. P. Weigman and J. C. Bacher. On motion, the officers of the meeting were included as delegates.

THE RELEASE OF HAMILTON EASTER .- Hamilton Easter, of the firm of Hamilton Easter & Co. merchants, of Baltimore, arrested about six weeks ago, and since tried before the Military Commission in this city, of which Major Ge eral Doubleday is president, charged with selling goods to blockade runners, to be conveyed into the rebel lines, was yesterday unconditionally released through the exertions of Gov. Ford, late of Ohio, and his associate counsel. Other merchants of Baltimore, for whom Gov. Ford was counsel, have been, through his efforts, released from close confinement, and allowed to resume their business. The merchants of this city are still held in confinement, and their stores guarded by the military. SENT TO JAIL FOR COURT .- Cn the 26th of October last, a female went into the residence of an old widow lady in this city, pretending that she wanted to fix her skirts. She took advantage of the old lady, and succeeded in robbing her of about $300 in money. The case was taken in hand by Detectives Clarvoe, McDevitt and Bigley, who yesterday arrested the sharp female in Alexandria, where she had been married to a soldier in an independent company after taking the money. She was brought to this city, and, when taken before Justice Boswell, was recognized as an old offender named Josephine Parrant. Justice Bos viell sent her to jail for court.
